

ONLINE Deakin Course

Deakin University offers, in association with MLQ International, a non-award online course equivalent to two learning days delivered flexibly over a three and a half week period

MLQ360 Certification

A short course for practitioners incorporating reliable evidence-based assessments. It features best practice feedback training / processes to establish objective developmental goals in follow through plans with "buy-in" all linked to research driven outcomes.

The online course is hosted through Deakin University's state of the art online environment for distance education. Features include a range of learning and practice modalities including -

- Moderated eLive discussion sessions and case study reviews;
- Personal report assessment feedback and actual facilitation practice with a learning partner;
- Audio group review discussions and exploration of practice issues;
- Concise training in the Full Range Leadership Model (Bass and Avolio) and associated multi-level assessments;
- Access to extensive reference and practice resource materials;
- Certification by MLQ International for the MLQ360 and MLQ Self reports which can be implemented and controlled 24/7 by graduates as members of the MLQ Accredited Network.

To pre-register your interest online:

www.mlq.com.au/course_register_online.asp

For further information and questions contact:
info@mlq.com.au

Dr Josephine Palermo,

Facilitator / Presenter.

Deakin University.

josephine.palermo@deakin.edu.au

Ray Elliott,

Facilitator / Presenter.

Director of MLQ International

rayelliott@mlq.com.au

Course Includes

- Introduction to Full Range Leadership Model theory and extensive associated empirical research literature;
- Psychometric properties and associations with desired outcomes;
- Features the MLQ360 International and Australian assessment reports and their benefits;
- Collecting and managing data and raters;
- Reviewing, interpreting and experiencing MLQ360 and MLQSelf reports;
- Reception and debriefing of one's own MLQ360 personal report commenced on enrolment;
- Professionally facilitating feedback using state of the art methods;
- Navigating ethical practice issues for sound practice;
- Establishing evidence-based Leadership Development Plans;
- Multi-scale extension surveys for further local contextualisation and applications with clients.

MLQ International is a Division of MLQ Pty Ltd, Melbourne.

MLQ Pty Ltd | PO Box 199 | Hawthorn | VIC | 3122 | Australia | (61-3) 9819 3689 | info@mlq.com.au | www.mlq.com.au